

How on earth can you attack the NJ Do Not Call List? Finally NJ has done something right and good for the public and an overbearing agency wants to limit it. Get off your high horse and let this issue go. I don't know of one person who wants phone spam, I would like to know if those making this attack have their phone numbers on a Do Not Call List!!!